

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor extends Chalo Loku & Guru Nanak Jayanti Greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has extended sincere greetings to the people of the State on the joyous occasion of Chalo Loku. The Governor expressed hope and believes that while continuing the excellent tradition of celebrating the traditional festival, the socio-religious festival will be the binding force amongst the communities and also help in showcasing the cultural mosaic of our State.

On the auspicious occasion, the Governor join the Nocte community in offering prayer to 'Almighty Rang' for peace, prosperity and well being of all.

The Governor also conveyed warm greetings to all, particularly the Sikh community, as the festive occasion coincidences with Guru Nanak Jayanti. He trusts that the occasion will help all in imbibing Gururji's divine ideals of humanity, equality and brotherhood.

May these two festive occasions, inspire us to be better individuals with love and compassion for one and all, more particularly to the marginalized section of the society and guide us on the path of truth, rectitude, social harmony and unity and bring peace and prosperity in the society, the Governor wished.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, November 24, 2015