

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

You are the asset and pride of the State: Gov

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa felicitated Smt Anshu Jamsenpa, who has the distinction of being the only Indian woman mountaineer to climbed Mount Everest thrice, at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 26th November 2015. Smt Jamsenpa also has the credit of nine successful peak summits and holds the record of being the only mother in the world to summit Mount Everest twice in 10 days. She created another mountaineering record by scaling three Himalayan peaks in just six days.

While congratulating for her achievement, the Governor, who was former President of Explorer, an adventure related association in Assam, said that the feat has achieved is incredible. She is asset and pride of the State.

The Governor expressed hope that youth will be inspired by her.

He assured to positively look into the proposal submitted by the Arunachal Mountaineering and Adventure Sports Association for promotion of mountaineering and adventure sports in the State.

Shri Tsering Wange, President, Arunachal Mountaineering and Adventure Sports Association and Shri Koj Nawrence, Joint Secretary, AMASA, were present during the felicitation.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, November 26, 2015