

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

GOVERNOR REVIEWS LAW AND ORDER

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa reviewed the law and order situation in the State particularly in the State Capital at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 15th December 2015. The Governor emphasised that State Government should ensure there is no breach of peace and tranquilly and law and order is strengthened in view of prevailing situation in the State. He advised the State Home Minister and Chief Secretary to take all precautions and necessary actions to contain untoward incidence, if any.

Chairing the high level Security Meeting, the Governor also advised that message should go to the people that any act of violence or law and order situation will be strongly dealt with.

State Home Minister Shri Tanga Byaling, Chief Secretary Shri Ramesh Negi, Principal Secretary Home Shri Dharmendra Sharma, Director General of Police Shri S. Nithiananda and Superintendent of Police, Capital Shri Devendra Arya attended the meeting along with security officers from other agencies.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, December 15, 2015