

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor congratulates the people of Namsai, Kurung Kumey and East Siang Districts

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has congratulated the people of Namsai, Kurung Kumey and East Siang Districts for being awarded the best performing districts, during the Digital India Week, which was observed from 1st to 7th July 2015. The best performing districts were selected by Department of Electronic and Information Technology under the Union Ministry of Communications and IT.

Congratulating the Deputy Commissions Shri RK Sharma (Namsai), Smt Mamta Riba Naksang (Kurung Kumey) and Ms Isha Khosla (East Siang), who received the awards on behalf of the people of the respective Districts from Union Minister of Communication and IT Shri Ravi Shankar Prasad in a function organized to mark the 'Good Governance Day' in New Delhi on 28th December, the Governor expressed his hope that under such abled leadership the objectives of the Digital India will be soon realised. He wished that the Digital India be popularise and the reach of existing e-services are expanded.

The Governor called upon the Deputy Commissioners of other Districts to emulated the proactive role of DCs of Namsai, Kurung Kumey and East Siang Districts and educate and motivate the citizens of the Frontier State of Arunachal Pradesh on functional digital literacy, cyber security, cyber hygiene, ensure better utilization of Digital infrastructure.

The Governor also congratulated the Communication and IT engineers from respective National Informatics Centre and District Informatics Centre, Shri Sanjiv Kumar Das, Shri Bamang Chai and Shri Amujao P.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, December 29, 2015