ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has conveyed his warm greetings and good wishes to the people of Arunachal Pradesh, particularly the Muslim community on the auspicious occasion of Id-ul-Zuha. He has expressed his hope that the sacred occasion would further strengthen the faith in the Almighty for leading all along the path of peace, progress and prosperity and also to enhance the bonds of our composite society.

In his message, the Governor said that the Islamic festival of sacrifice, Id-ul-Zuha, (Arabic) or Bakr Id in India is observed all over the World to commemorate the sacrifice of the Prophet, who willingly agreed to sacrifice his son at the behest of God and almost sacrificed him, when the Blissful Allah had taken mercy and gave his life. This reflects the utmost faith of the Prophet in Allah, the Governor underscored.

May the noble ideal of Id-ul-Zuha fill our lives with peace, devotion and harmony as also high sense of sacrifice for the benefit of humanity, the Governor wished in his message
