

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor for corruption free, accountable administration, and good governance and 100% attendance in Government offices

With the proclamation of the President Rule in Arunachal Pradesh, taking charge of the functioning of the State Government, the Governor Shri JP Rajkhowa has instructed for issue of directives to all the Deputy Commissioners to maintain law and order in their respective districts and also to ensure corruption free, accountable administration and good governance by all district officials.

Noting that unsatisfactory attendance of Government officers and staffs in the offices, the Governor called for 100 % attendance for effective functioning of the offices and delivery of public services. For this, he has suggested for installing biometric attendance system in the offices.

Underscoring maintenance of proper records of office files, the Governor desires that offices must maintain File Registers as per the Arunachal Pradesh Secretariat Manual of Office Procedure 2010 under strict supervision of responsible officers of their respective departments or offices.

The Governor has also appealed to the people of the State to carry on the normal duties as usual and in case of any difficulty, they may refer the matter to Governor Secretariat. He also appealed to the people for their cooperation in expediting the developmental works. Furthermore, the Governor advised all to maintain communal harmony.
