

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Advisor calls on the Governor

The Advisor to Governor, Shri Y.S. Dadwal, former Delhi Police Commissioner called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhwa at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 28th January 2016.

The Governor instructed Shri Dadwal, who arrived in the State Capital yesterday to take immediate steps to ensure rule of law, and maintenance of peace and tranquillity throughout the State. Utmost care be taken to safeguard the interest of the common people. In the same line, freedom of the common citizens and government officers must not be infringed. No person should be allowed to take law into his hands and no nuisance should be tolerated. Law breaker should be dealt with firm hands.

Later the Governor had separate meetings with Chief Secretary Shri Ramesh Negi, Principal Secretary Finance Shri Satya Gopal and Secretary Law Shri Onit Panyang to keep abreast himself of the administrative and financial status of the State. The officers briefed the Governor on various departments and suggested necessary corrective steps.

Meanwhile the Governor has reiterated his appeal to the people of the State to carry on the normal duties as usual and in case of any difficulty, they may refer the matter to Governor Secretariat. He also appealed to the people to maintain communal harmony and peace.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, January 28, 2015