PRESS RELEASE

GOVERNOR INVITES CONSTRUCTIVE SUGGESTIONS FROM THE PEOPLE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has invited constructive suggestions from political parties, civil societies, intellectuals and Non-governmental organizations for good governance and for eradication of corruption in the State. He also called upon the people to maintain peace and communal harmony throughout the State.

Taking over the responsibility of the State Government, the Governor gave instructions for various measures to check and monitor the financial status of the State.

Interacting with a delegation of Bharatiya Janata Party led by its State President Tai Tagak and National Executive Member Shri Tapir Goa, who called on him, the Governor advised the members not to have victory or defeat feeling but to work for betterment of the people, society and the State. The Governor assured the delegation that his administration will take all measure to plug leakage of revenue from the State.

He informed the delegation that Chief Secretary has already issued orders to all deputy Commissioners to take action against district officials who are missing from the district without prior approval of the competent authority.

The delegation apprised the Governor about various problems faced by the Government staff and common man. For instance SSA teachers have not been paid salary irregularly. The delegation also complained about rampant encroachment by some people on Government land.

Assuring his best for welfare of the people, the Governor said that steps are already in process and every part of the State, District and Constituency will get their due share. Fair view is taken in all cases and mal-practices such as absentee in offices, officers and officials not in their places of posting and movement of District Heads of Department with permission of higher authorities and Deputy Commissioners will not be accepted.

On being apprised of the encroachment of Central Government offices', Roadside and reserved land, the Government instructed for immediate action against encroachers and initiation of legal action.

He also instructed for regular payment of salaries to Sarva Shiksha Abhiyan teachers, who are rendering service in the interior parts of the State.

The Governor took note of the irrational creation of independent ADC areas and irregularities in Public Distribution System as apprised by the BJP delegation.
