PRESS RELEASE

Governor meets the members of Arunachal Pradesh Chamber of Commerce

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa, acting swiftly on the newspaper report of reduction in market activity allegedly due to President Rule, called an urgent meeting of Arunachal Pradesh Chamber of Commerce today. The meeting was attended by President, Arunachal Pradesh Chamber of Commerce Shri Techi Lala, Advisor Shri Pradeep Kumar and other members along with DC Capital Shri Sandeep Kumar Singh, IAS and SP Capital Shri Devender Arya, IPS.

The President, APCC clarified that the market turnover has ebbed over the last few months due to various factors and not due to imposition of President Rule.

Rather, he pointed out that extortion menace has considerably reduced in the market owing to stringent policing in the Capital Complex area.

Shri Pradeep Kumar while appreciating the improvement in law and order in Capital Complex area situation requested Governor to post police personnel in the police beats that have been constructed across the Capital Complex area, especially in the market areas.

The Governor directed the IGP, DC and SP to ensure good coordination and liaisoning with the market community so that they can carry on business without fear of any miscreants. He directed them to take swift action against anybody who harasses the market community by way of extortion or intimidation.

DC Capital Complex Shri Sandeep Kumar Singh, IAS has asked the business community to meet him and give him list of people who harass them habitually so that action can be taken under CrPC 107/151 and 109 and also under various other sections of law.
