PRESS RELEASE

Indigenous priest association calls on the Governor

The members of All Arunachal Pradesh Abotani Nibu (Priest) welfare Association, led by Shri Hari Taro called on the Governor, Shri JP Rajkhowa at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 5th February 2016 and submitted a one-point memorandum for providing security in the Nibu Nijik Model Village, Jami Jate Area, Itanagar.

Giving a patient hearing to their grievances, the Governor assured to look into their problem.

The Governor asked the Deputy Commissioner Shri Sandeep Kumar Singh, who was present in the meeting to immediately look in to the matter and necessary action. He directed him to deploy adequate security personnel to ensure communal harmony in the Model Village and its neighbouring area.

The Governor appreciated the priests for carrying forward the indigenous rituals and sustained the age-old heritage and practices. He advised them to promote and propagate the indigenous culture.

PRO to Governor
