Governor greets the people on the occasion of Boori Boot Yullo

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has greeted the people of the State on the festive occasion of Boori Boot Yullo. He expressed hope that the festivity will promote amity and oneness amongst the people of the State.

In his message to the people, the Governor said that festivals are an important part of our life. As agrarian community, most of the festivals in Arunachal Pradesh are associated with agriculture. While preserving the age old cultural heritage, the Governor advised that they must also upgrade the agricultural practices with technologies and scientific methods. He wished that the festival also spread messages of innovative and technical ideas amongst the people thereby enhancing their economic prosperity of the agrarian community and the State.

May the festival rituals invokes the spirit of Boori Boot and bless one and all with contentment, good health and prosperity, the Governor wished.
