PRESS RELEASE

Cultural cum Heritage Centres in every district: Governor

A delegation of members of Indigenous Faith and Cultural Society of Arunachal Pradesh (IFCSAP), led by its President Dr. Ligu Tacho called on the Governor, Shri JP Rajkhowa at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 23rd February 2016. They discussed on infrastructure for preservation, promotion and propagation of indigenous faith, culture and traditions in the State.

The Governor suggested for 'Cultural cum Heritage Centres' in various parts of the State, at least one in every district. He said that these centres should be utilized for documentation, training and promotions of cultural heritage. He also emphasized on promotion of goodwill and oneness amongst the people of the State.

Stating that the State Government will respond positively, the Governor advised the members of IFCSAP to take up the issue with the new democratically elected popular Government.

Earlier, IFCSAP President and Vice President (Hq) Shri Gichik Taaza briefed the Governor on the aims and objectives of the IFCSAP. Claiming that due to lack of preachers, books and prayer halls, the followers of indigenous faith is diminishing, for which they submitted a memorandum for construction of Cultural Halls in the State.

The IFCSAP delegation expressed gratitude to the Governor for exemplary good governance during the President Rule.
