Chief Minister calls on the Governor

The Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh Shri Kalikho Pul called on the Governor Shri JP Rajkhowa at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 11th March 2016.

In the first 'one to one' privilege meeting after induction of ministers in the State Cabinet, the Governor felicitated the Chief Minister with 'Team Arunachal' lapel pin and Governor's pen for the new inning with his Cabinet Ministers. He expressed his hope that under dynamic leadership of Shri Pul, the State will touch new heights of development and prosperity.

The Governor advised the Chief Minister to take all precautions and measures to ensure fruits of development reach to the poorest of the poor and sense of security and participation prevails amongst the people in the State. He appreciated Shri Pul for expediting the process of improvement in road communication particularly in State Capital. He wished that the work of progress and development spreads all over the State and corruption is eradicated.

The Governor also shared his experiences in the recent district tour. He called for sincere and dedicated approach to address the challenges in health and education sectors and at the same time to harness the tourism potential of the State, particularly adventure and wildlife.

Assuring the Governor that State Cabinet will work as a 'Team', the Chief Minister briefed him on the initiatives and steps taken by the State Government. He also briefed him on the future course of actions in the special priority areas of his government.

It may be recalled that immediately after assuming the charge of the Chief Minister, Shri Pul has sanctioned financial remuneration for Police personnel and contingency staffs and is giving special focus on Health, Education, water supply & sanitation and power sector along many other vital sectors. He also assured to continue the initiative of the Governor towards eradication of corruption.
