PRESS RELEASE

May this festival strengthen our proud composite culture and bring colours to the lives of the people: Governor on the occasion of Holi

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has extended his warm greetings and good wishes to the people of the State on the festive occasion of Holi. He expressed hope that the festivity, which marks the onset of the Spring, will usher in peace, happiness and prosperity to all.

In his festival message, the Governor said that Holi symbolises boundless joy and the vivid shades of the Indian composite culture. It promotes deep social and cultural message of unity in diversity for all. It fortifies the commitment to the finer values of equity, inclusion and fair play. He wished that the festival, which is celebrated throughout the country by everyone, irrespective of caste, class, creed or origin continues reinforce the social fabric of goodwill and harmony.

May the festival strengthen our proud composite culture and bring colours to the lives of the people, the Governor wished.
