Governor condoles the demise of Kamla Advani

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh JP Rajkhowa along with First Lady Rita Rajkhowa has condoled the sudden demise of Smt Kamla Advani, wife of former Home Minister of India and senior Bharatiya Janata Party leader Shri Lal Krishna Advani.

The Governor in his letter to Shri Advani said that he deeply grieved the sudden demise of Smt. Kamla Advani. Her passing- away has surely shaken you, all the most because of the life-long selfless love and support she had been extending to you, throughout your eventful political career and service to the nation. She was indeed a solid pillar of strength for you, all along, he said.

While conveying profound heartfelt condolence on behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh, First Lady Smt. Rita Rajkhowa and on his own behalf to all other members of bereaved family and praying to the Almighty for eternal peace of the departed soul in Vaikuntha, the Governor wished that Bhagavan Sri Krishna bestow Shri Advani and his near and dear ones with the much needed solace and strength, to bear with the irreparable loss.

PRO to Governor
