The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has conveyed his warm greetings and best wishes to the people of the State and Assam on the joyous occasion of the Assamese New Year, Bohag Bihu.

In his Message, the Governor said that the Bohag Bihu, also known as Rongali Bihu, is one of the most vibrant and important festivals of Assam, which symbolizes peace, happiness, spirit of brotherhood and friendship among the people, irrespective of caste, creed, religion or language. The festivity on the occasion brings people closer and instils a sense of amity in the human society.

The Governor wishes that this Festival promotes peace, unity, and integrity and reinforces the age-old harmonious relationship, by dispelling the past differences and misunderstandings, if any, amongst the citizens of Arunachal Pradesh and Assam, in particular and the people of the North East in general.
