

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Arunachal Pradesh must have a 'Heritage Village': Governor

A delegation of the Galo Welfare Society (GWS), led by its President Dr. Mitum Boje called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 10th June 2016. A twelve-point memorandum, which includes, Inter District Road connectivity, inter Circle Link road, creation of new districts, establishment of Central Divisional Headquarters, Engineering college, Industrial Training Institute and Tribal Heritage Complex was submitted to the Governor on the occasion.

The Governor, who have been emphasising on Inter district, subdivision and circle connectivity assured the Society to recommend the State Government to expedite the projects related to roads mentioned in their memorandum particularly Zirdo-Kadu Link Road.

The Governor said that the elected representatives also must take up the connectivity issue at all levels, while informing that at the request of Pangchau-Wakka MLA, he had taken up the issue of the 55 km Konsa-Khanu road in Longding District with Union Minister for Road Transport, Highways & Shipping, which will be now taken up under SARDP.

Appreciating the proposal of the GWS for Tribal Heritage Complex, the Governor suggested that Arunachal Pradesh must have a 'Heritage Village' in the line of 'Mawphlang Village' of Meghalaya, where Prime Minister of India Narendra Modi visited recently. He said that such centre will not only preserve and promote cultural richness of the State but also attract tourists in large number.

While commending the proposal for ITI by GWS in the foothills of West and East Siang Districts, the Governor reiterated that there must be an ITI in every district either Government funded or in PPP Model for skill development and augment avenues for employment generation.

Additional Secretary to Governor Shri BS Hada, Smt Yabin Zirdo, President (Women Wing), Shri Gomar Basar, Secretary (Education) and Shri Yomkar Riba, Assistant Secretary were also present on the occasion.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, June 10, 2016