PRESS RELEASE

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has condoled the sudden demise of Shri Tumpak Ete, former Member of Arunachal Pradesh State Legislative Assembly and also a renowned social activist.

In his condolence message to Smt Y. Ete, wife of Late Tumpak Ete, the Governor said that in the passing way of Late Ete, the State has lost a Statesman and an eminent social worker, who made immense contribution in preservation of indigenous culture and traditions. Late Ete's sudden death has caused a great vacuum and irreparable loss not only to his family members but also to the whole State in general and to the Galo Community in particular.

Convey sincere and heartfelt condolence to the members of the bereaved family on behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh, his wife Smt Rita Rajkhowa and on his own behalf, the Governor offered prayers to Almighty Donyi Polo to give them enough strength, determination and courage to bear the tragedy and also for eternal peace of the departed soul.
