PRESS RELEASE

Governor extends greetings on the auspicious occasion of Id-ul-Zuha

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri JP Rajkhowa has extended his sincere greetings to the people of the State in general and to Muslim brethren in particular on the auspicious occasion of Id-ul-Zuha. He expressed his hope that the occasion will further promote the rich Islamic tradition of faith and devotion amongst the believers in the society.

In his message to the people on the occasion, the Governor said that Id ul Zuha, which is also known as Eid al Adha or Bakrid reminds us of the absolute faith of Ibrahim (Abraham) in Allah and promotes good will amongst the people. This festival is celebrated with traditional fervor and gaiety in India and the world. The festivity endorses purity of heart, obedience and show generosity towards others. Special prayer meetings are conducted, along with distribution of gifts and food to relatives, neighbours and the poor. It is in this spirit that Id ul Zuha is celebrated all over the world, he added.

May Id-ul-Zuha this year usher in happiness and prosperity for all and continue to strengthen our composite society, the Governor wished.
