

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor reviews the overall security scenario of the State

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri PB Acharya reviewed the overall security scenario of the State with the senior officers of the security agencies present in the State including Arunachal Pradesh Police (APP), Indo Tibetan Border Police (ITBP), Seema Suraksha Bal (SSB), Central Reserved Police Force (CRPF), Assam Rifles at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 1st February 2017.

The Governor called up the officials to strengthen the security apparatus and at the same time initiate action to change the mindset of the people to promote Pan-India spirit. Every citizen of the State must be respected. It is the prime duty of the security agencies to instill sense of security, the Governor stressed.

The Governor advised the security agencies to organize more civic action programme to win the heart and mind. Do more than your call of duty. Involve trend setters and opinion makers such as senior citizens, ex-servicemen, and college and university students in your programmes, the Governor suggested, while terming these people the dormant energies of the society and create awareness on the Government schemes.

The Governor also asked them to help the farmers, artisans and entrepreneurs of the region but buying their products for the needs of forces and at the same time solving their marketing challenges.

The Governor asked the APP to constitute Peace and Security Citizens or Fellowship Committee involving opinion makers to aid the security agencies in maintaining law and order, promote peace and harmony and also aid the poor and needy people.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, February 1, 2017