PRESS RELEASE

Governor meets His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya met His Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama at Thupsung Dhargye Ling Monastery, Dirang, 45 km from Bomdila in West Kameng District on 6th April 2017. State's First Lady Smt Kavita Acharya accompanied the Governor to the meeting. They exchanged greetings and shared religious views.

Recalling his journey in March 1959, His Holiness expressed his appreciation to the people of India and Arunachal Pradesh for the warm reception accorded to him. He said that India is the only country which combines modern education and technology to tackling destructive and negative forces.

His Holiness further said that ancient Indian provides mental peace.

In brief but poignant meeting, the Governor also shared his views on Buddhism and Hinduism.
