

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Rest of India salute the Arunachalees as the sentinels of the country:
Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya, who is accompanied by State's First Lady Smt Kavita Acharya reached Namsai in his first leg of four-day district tours to Namsai and Lohit Districts. The first couples were accorded traditional reception at Mahadevpur. Members from various communities of Namsai district were present on the occasion.

Addressing a meeting of District Heads of Departments and public at Mahadevpur, the Governor said that he want to reach out to the people as much as possible. Reiterating Prime Minister's slogan that unless North East progress, India cannot develop, he urged upon the people to join hands for growth and development in an equitable manner.

While stressing on strengthening education sector in the district, the Governor said that to progress, we have to empower people through education. He expressed his concerns on poor results in Government Schools.

The Governor emphasized on education with skill so that the graduates are readily employable.

Impressed by the traditional reception, the Governor called upon the youth to preserve their dialect, customs and cultural heritage. .

The Governor appealed to the district officials, Panchayat leaders and public representatives to create awareness on Jan Dhan Yojana and other welfare schemes of the State and Central Government.

The Governor said that rest of India salute the Arunachalees as the sentinels of the country and they are also stand with them, the Governor said.

Earlier, Namsai Deputy Commissioner Shri R.K. Sharma briefed the Governor on the overall development of the district.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
NAMSAI, August 4, 2017