

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

'Be an active participant in the 'Mission New India': Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya in his third leg of district tour reached Changlang, District Headquarter of Changlang District by road from Khonsa on 30th August 2017.

Addressing a public meeting, the Governor called upon the people to be an active participant in the 'Mission New India'. He exhorted them to stand against corruption, drug menace and other social evils. He emphasized that all the members of the society must stand united.

Stating that there are many issues which are our shame but at the same time our challenge, the Governor pointed while stating that the achievers must be givers.

Emphasizing on promotion of the indigenous culture and traditions, the Governor urged upon the people to be proud of the cultural heritage. The Governor also stressed on preservation of indigenous dialects and faiths.

The Governor advised the people to avail maximum benefit from out of central flagship programme, particularly Jan Dhan Yojana, One Rupee Insurance

Speaking on the occasion, the elected representatives requested to Governor for his assistance in providing a Sainik School, De-addiction center and tourism circuit. They also briefed him of Refugees Issues, Militancy, AFSPA and Act East policy.

Shri Phusum Khimhum, Parliamentary Secretary Hydropower, Shri Tesam Pongte, Parliamentary Secretary TLC and Shri Laisam Simai, MLA, Deputy Commissioner Shri W. Khimhum and SP Shri Amit Sharma Former Minister Shri T. Ngemu, were also present on the occasion along with representatives of business community, community leaders and general public.

Later the Governor also met the District Heads of Department and advised them to be sincerely and dedicatedly carry their duties. He also advised them to avail the services of students and ex-servicemen for creating awareness about Central and State Flagship programmes.

You are pillars of this wonderful society, the Governor told the officials.

Earlier, on his arrival, the Governor was received by Parliamentary Secretaries Shri Tesam Pongte, and Shri Laisam Simai, public leaders and government officials. He was accorded a traditional reception by cultural troupes of Tangsa and Tutsa tribes of Changlang District.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, August 30, 2017