

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Maintain sanctity, discipline, reverence and respect for other faiths and Swachhta (Cleanliness) in and around the place of worship: Governor

In his effort to reach out to the indigenous communities and to know more about their traditional beliefs and faiths, the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Shri P.B. Acharya visited to the Golgii Bote Donyi Polo Ganggiing, near Jawaharlal Nehru State Museum, Itanagar on 3rd September 2017. Joining the Adi Community, the Governor paid obeisances at the Donyi Polo Altar and distributed fruits in the weekly prayer meeting.

Interacting with the Donyi Polo faith believers, the Governor conveyed his appreciation for organising regular prayer meetings on the chosen day of the week. He exhorted them to preserved the rich cultural values in the faith and sustain it.

The Governor emphasised on maintaining sanctity, discipline, reverence, respect for other faiths and Swachhta (Cleanliness) in and around the place of worship. He called upon the people from all faiths and religions with similar beliefs, traditions and values to come together and participate in each others festivals and prayer meetings.

President, Golgii Bote Donyi Polo Ganggiing, Itanagar Shri Talom Dupak, ADC, Capital Complex, and Er. Anong Perme, CE (Power), President, Society for Festival of Adis and Chairman, Adi Galo Heritage Society were present on the occasion amongst other.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, September 3, 2017