PRESS RELEASE

Festivals are the means to carry forward the rich cultural heritage of the people: Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd) has conveyed his good wishes and warm greetings to the people of the State on the festive occasion of Nyetrii-Dow.

In his message, the Governor said that festivals are the means to carry forward the rich cultural heritage of the people concerned. Celebration of Festivals helps the younger generation to learn and imbibe their traditions for the benefit of the community.

On this festive occasion, I join my Aka (Hrusso) brethren in offering my prayers to Almighty God for the progress of all, he further said in the message, while expressing his hope that the festival of Aka (Hrusso) community will further promote peace, harmony and prosperity for all.
