PRESS RELEASE

Governor emphasizes that elected leaders must act to preserve the truth, promote the well being of the people and strive with right spirit to uphold the National Motto 'Satyamev Jayte'

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd) attended the dedication function of the State Legislative Assembly building at Itanagar. The State Legislative Assembly building was dedicated to the people of Arunachal Pradesh by the President of India Shri Ram Nath Kovind on 19th November 2017.

Speaking on the occasion, the Governor said that Legislative Assembly is a long needed infrastructure to provide a convenient ambience to the legislators in the State. It will provide a dignified and befitting platform and convenience to the legislators to reflect, review and sit for ratiocination, for drafting, debating and enacting laws for the benefit of the people in the days to come. He wished that the legislators will work with transparency and accountability visible to the people.

Recalling the event on 19th November 1893, when the President of the United States Abraham Lincoln while attending the 'Thanks giving' at the National War Cemetery, at Gettysburg for the soldiers killed in war for "human rights" between the Union Forces and the Confederate Forces, had defined the Democracy as, Government of the People, By the People and For the People, the Governor said USA is the oldest Democracy but we are proud to be the largest Democracy.

The Governor emphasized that elected leaders must act to preserve the truth, promote the well being of the people and strive with right spirit to uphold the National Motto 'Satyamev Jayte'.
