

GOVERNOR'S SECRETARIAT
ARUNACHAL PRADESH
ITANAGAR

PRESS RELEASE

Governor, First Lady of the State hosts 'At Home' function

On the happy occasion of the Republic Day, the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Minister and First Lady of the State Smt Neelam Misra hosted 'At Home' function for the distinguished citizens, Ex-servicemen, school children, NCC cadets, Bharat Scouts and Guides, social workers, educationists, intellectuals, senior citizens, sportspersons of the State at Raj Bhavan lawns on 26th January 2018. The invitees from all walks of life attended the function. While greeting the guests, the Governor and the State first lady shared the joy of the Day. As part of the daylong Republic Day celebrations of 26th January, the young invitees happily clicked individual snaps, group snaps and selfies with the Governor and the First Lady.

The Itanagar Raj Bhavan was specially decorated with plants and flowers to welcome the invitees. Northern lawns of the raj Bhavan wore festive look with tri colours festooned at various enclosures. Students from different schools of the Capital City turned up in their traditional attires and made the event colourful.

The 'At Home' function began with the fine play of the National Anthem by the Arunachal Pradesh Police band from Police Training Center, Banderdewa.

Chief Minister Shri Pema Khandu, Speaker of State Legislative Assembly Shri T.N. Thongdok, members of the State cabinet, Chief Secretary Shri Satya Gopal, IAS, Shri Sandeep Goel, IPS and other senior officials of the Government along with their lady wife were conspicuous by their presence at the function.

While the Governor thanked the guests and prepared to depart, the Police Band played the National Anthem while as the Governor and the guests stood at rapt attention.

PRO to Governor
Arunachal Pradesh
ITANAGAR, January 26, 2018