PRESS RELEASE

Governor meets HRD Minister, Commissioner of Navodaya Vidyalaya

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) met the Hon'ble Union Minister for Human Resource Development Shri Prakash Javadekar on 5th June, 2018 at New Delhi.

The Governor requested the Hon'ble Union Minister for opening Residential Kendriya Vidyalaya in four to five of our border districts in conjunction with Navodaya Vidyalaya for creating educational facility for our children.

The Governor emphasized on opening of these schools in the remote areas and higher reaches of our border districts. The Governor also emphasized on fast track planning and commissioning of these schools. In addition to the help for our school going children, the people living in these areas will also be benefited by the opening of these schools in great measures. This initiative will also help in the development of the area, generation of employment and livelihood.

The Union Minister for Human Resource Development appreciated the suggestion of the Governor and he promised his full support in this regard. The Union Minister promised to open these Residential Kendriya Vidyalaya-cum-Navodaya Vidyalayas as early as possible.

The Governor also mentioned to the Union Minister for Human Resource Development for appointing the Director for the NIT, Yupia and also a permanent Vice Chancellor for the Rajiv Gandhi University. The Union Minister promised to complete the process of the appointment of Director, NIT and Vice Chancellor, Rajiv Gandhi University at an early date. It was also emphasized by the Governor that the Educational institutions both higher level and also Kendriya Vidyalayas and Navodaya Vidyalayas need special dispensation for Arunachal Pradesh.

The meeting of the Governor with the Minister for Human Resource Development culminated on a very optimistic and helpful note.

On 5th June 2018, Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra, Governor of Arunachal Pradesh also had a meeting with the Commissioner of Navodaya Vidyalaya. The Governor briefed him also regarding the need for opening of Primary and Secondary schools for the young children of Arunachal Pradesh which Governor had discussed with the Human Resource Development Minister.

The Commissioner of Navodaya Vidyalaya also promised to the Governor for asserting Arunachal Pradesh Education Department in supplying and transporting of NCERT Textbooks for the our Schools in various districts of Arunachal Pradesh. He volunteered for this help which he said will be done along with the Textbooks which his Department sends for Navodaya Vidyalayas, in Arunachal Pradesh.
