PRESS RELEASE

Develop scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry and reform:
Governor to APCS Officers

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) interacted with the officers of Arunachal Pradesh Civil Service Entry Grade (Lateral) 2017 Batch at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 29th June 2018. The Governor talked to the officers regarding the important articles of the Constitution relevant in the run of their duty, the institution of Governor and the model ways of shaping their career.

The Governor said that the administrative officers are the most important link in governance. They should provide good governance for the wellbeing and development of the people of the State.

Giving a copy of Fundamental Duties to each officer, the Governor reminded them of their duties and obligations towards the fellow citizens. He emphasised that they must develop scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry and reform.

Referring to Articles 154, 159, 163 and 371 (H), the Governor highlighted on the executive power of State vested in Governor and Governor's duties and obligations. He said that as he has made and subscribed the Oath of Governor, he will devote himself to the service and wellbeing of the people of Arunachal Pradesh and go full length to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution and law. He also referred to Article 371 (H), where the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh has special responsibility towards the Law and Order of the State.

The Governor urged the officers to work with the resolve and dedication to bring development in every corner of the State. He advised them to work with the spirit of selflessness to ensure that challenges facing the last man on the last rung of the society in education, development and health are addressed and mitigated.

The Governor cautioned the officers that there will be many challenges, interferences, pressures, threats and inducements to detract them in carrying out their proper official duties. He advised them to develop a reputation of being transparent and accountable and work with a 'no personal gain' bottom line.

The Governor stressed upon the officers to remove corruption and ensure that every paisa spend under their power is accounted for. They must meet every visitor and no visitor to their office should return unattended.

First Lady of the State, Smt Neelam Misra and Shri Bamin Tarang, Assistant Director, ATI were present amongst others.

The APCS officers are undergoing induction training cum refresher course at Administrative Training Institute, Naharlagun.
