PRESS RELEASE

Governor extends Raksha Bandhan greetings

Raksha Bandhan is a celebration of humanism, responsibility and sanctity of relationship: Governor

Let there be a collective endeavour to work for the safety and empowerment of the women: Governor appealed.

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended his warm greetings to the people of the State on the joyous occasion of Raksha Bandhan.

In his message, the Governor said that 'Raksha Bandhan' symbolizes a sacred social 'bond of protection'. This traditional duty of protection, of the sisters by the brothers and, in equal terms, protection of the womenfolk by the men, with brotherly emotions, is unique to our civilization and national culture. Raksha Bandhan is a celebration of humanism, responsibility and sanctity of relationship. This day siblings, pray for each others' well being and wish for each others' safety and happiness. I wish that this festival continue to reinforce the endearing affection among all communities and the folds, he further said.

Let there be a collective endeavour to work for the safety and empowerment of the women, the Governor appealed.

Let us pray that this auspicious day strengthens the goodwill among all strata of society and causes only good news to be said and heard by one and all from all nooks and corners of the Nation, the Governor wished.
