Governor presents Rajya Puraskar Award to Scouts and Guides

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) presented the Bharat Scouts and Guides Rajya Puraskar to scouts and guides from different schools of the State on 18th October 2019 at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on the occasion of 20th Arunachal Pradesh State Rajya Puraskar Award Ceremony. 30 Scouts and 19 Guides received the Rajya Puraskar Award from the Governor on the occasion.

Speaking on the occasion, the Governor congratulated the awardees and exhorted them to work hard to excel in life. He also applauded the trainers and officials for guiding the students.

The Governor said that Bharat Scouts and Guides Organization helps in capacity building and enhance the potential of the students. He commended the Scouts and Guides activities in Arunachal Pradesh and expressed his confidence that it will continue to have positive impact in the growth and development of the youth of the State.

Reminding the Scouts and Guides of the Scouts and Guides Laws, the Governor advised the Scouts and Guides to actively participate in cleanliness works, take tuition of children from weaker section of the society, impart First Aid trainings to other students, volunteer for social service and blood donation camps and strive to protect the flora and fauna. He advised the Scouts and Guides to sensitize social issues to promote amity and goodwill in the society.

Whatever you do, do with spirit of transparency, accountability, continuity, honesty, review and audit and wherever required mid-course correction. Any society will progress, when these values are instilled amongst the young children, he said.

The Scouts and Guides presented cultural programmes depicting the cultural heritage of Arunachal Pradesh and national integration. A demonstration on First Aid was also conducted by the Scouts and Guides. A brief report of Scouts and Guides activities was also presented by State Guide Organiser Officer Ms. C. Lowang.

First Lady of the State Smt Neelam Misra, Education Minister Er. Taba Tedir, Secretary Education, Ms Niharika Rai, IAS and Director, Secondary Education cum ex-officio State Chief Commissioner Bharat Scouts and Guides, Arunachal Pradesh Shri Gania Leij, were present on the occasion.
