PRESS RELEASE

Governor extends Good Governance Day greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended warm greetings to the people of the State on the special occasion of Good Governance Day, which commemorates the birth anniversary of former Prime Minister Bharat Ratna Late Atal Bihari Vajpayee.

In his message, the Governor said that Good Governance is the self realization of the government of the Day for providing a fair, transparent and accountable administration in the State. This also calls upon every public servant to be aware of and committed to his or her duties and responsibilities in the service of the people.

The Governor said that today, the apex national leadership, in the processes of governance is moving with the spirit of 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, and Sabka Vishwas'. It aims at providing an efficient, people-friendly, open and accountable administration to the Nation. He further said that in the same spirit the present State Government has been implementing 'Sarkar Aap Ke Dwar' to promote good governance by taking the administration to the doorstep of the citizens. 'Sarkar Aap Ke Dwar' aims at letting the people have the benefit of the best policies of the State. This growth and development oriented initiative of our State Government is key to our progress, the Governor said.

On this occasion, I join my beloved people of Arunachal Pradesh in paying our tribute to the great nation builder, Bharat Ratna Atal Bihari Vajpayee ji and rededicate ourselves to his ideals of good governance, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
