PRESS RELEASE

Governor condoles the demise of Shri RD Pradhan

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) condoled the sudden demise of the second Governor of the State Shri R.D. Pradhan. Expressing grief, the Governor said that a distinguished bureaucrat and admired administrator, late Pradhan during his long and distinguished administrative career, in various capacities made immense developmental contributions to the nation and the State of Arunachal Pradesh.

The Governor said that as Governor of Arunachal Pradesh, late Pradhan took keen interest in the public service programmes, especially the education. It was during his period that, the Arunachal University, now rechristened as Rajiv Gandhi University was established. The people of Arunachal Pradesh will always cherish fond memories of Late R.D. Pradhan, who groomed the State in its nascent stage, he said.

I, on behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh, Raj Bhavan Itanagar family and on my own behalf, convey heartfelt condolence on his demise and join all my fellow citizens of the State in praying to Almighty God for eternal peace for the departed soul, the Governor said in his condolence message.

PRO to Governor
