Governor condoles the demise of former minister

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has condoled the demise of former minister Shri Tsering Tashi.

In his condolence letter to Smt Sange Lhamu, w/o Late Tashi, the Governor said that Shri Tashi was a veteran politician who served the State in different capacities in its nascent stage. One of the first generation political leaders of Union Territory of Arunachal Pradesh, he served with distinction in the State Cabinet and held important portfolios including Finance, Public Works Department, Planning, Labour, Law and Parliamentary affairs.

The Governor said that Late Tashi was a man of varied interests and made lasting contributions in the promotion of literary works, social activities, indigenous culture and traditions. In his demise the State has lost a senior and distinguished leader who left a lasting imprint in different areas of public life, the Governor said.

I join the people of Arunachal Pradesh to pray to the Almighty God for eternal peace for the departed soul and give you and other members of the bereaved family fortitude to bear the irreparable loss, the Governor said in his letter.
