Governor greets media fraternity

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings to the media fraternity of India and in particular to that of our State Arunachal Pradesh on the occasion of National Press Day. He expressed hope that this celebration of free Press and freedom of expression will instil new zeal and passion for supporting the unity and integrity of the nation amongst the members of the Fourth Estate.

In his message, the Governor said that Media is the nerve of the society. It plays a vital role in dissemination of information to the masses based on facts and truth. Being proactive promoters and partners in developmental programmes, media has to play its role for enabling a just and corruption free administration and well informed citizenry, he said.

The Governor said that during the initial stages of COVID19 Pandemic, the members of the media fraternity were in the forefront with the COVID Warriors. With their energetic contribution, we as 'Team Arunachal' have been able to contain the spread of this dreaded virus, he said while expressing confidence that the media fraternity will continue its excellent work for the social upliftment, particularly helping the weak, poor, downtrodden, women and children and the preservation of the environment for a better and progressive tomorrow, for all.

On this special occasion, I call upon all my fellow citizens to uphold the freedom of Press, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
