Governor extends greetings on the occasion of Constitution Day

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended his warm greetings to all the fellow citizens of the State on the special occasion of the Constitution Day, which commemorates the Day when Constitution of India was enacted, adopted and given to the people of India in 1949.

The Governor said that the Constitution of India secures Justice, Liberty and Equality to all citizens, and promotes among them all Fraternity which is the best practice of democracy' He expressed his hope that this occasion will further strengthens our resolve to preserve, protect, defend and abide by our Constitution.

The Governor said that the Constitution of India which was enacted by the Constituent Assembly on November 26, 1949, came into force on January 26, 1950 and it is a matter of great pride for all of us that since then our country has followed all the tenets of the constitution in the spheres of legislation governance, administration and the judiciary. On this day I pay homage to our great Freedom Fighters, who won independence for the country and formed the Constituent Assembly. Amongst them the foremost was Dr. Rajendra Prasad, the President of the Constituent Assembly, who later became the First President of Independent India and the other was the head of the Drafting Committee Dr. B.R. Ambedkar. They made great contributions in giving one of the best constitutions of the world to us, the people of India, he said.

On this occasion, I appeal to all my fellow citizens of Arunachal Pradesh to uphold the sanctity of the Indian Constitution particularly the Fundamental Duties as enshrined in it. Let us devote ourselves to the development, progress and prosperity of the society, State and the Nation in the true spirit of our Constitution, the Governor appealed his message.
