Governor extends Indigenous Faith Day greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) extended his heartiest greetings to the people of the State on the special occasion of Indigenous Faith Day. He expressed his hope that celebration of this day will inspire all to carry forward the indigenous faiths and beliefs cherished from time immemorial and bequeathed to us by our forebears.

The Governor, in his message said that the Indigenous Faith Day is celebrated for showcasing the unique heritage of the indigenous people and to strengthen the indigenous trust, culture, customs, and rituals. It also reinforces our distinctive indigenous identity which has always stood for peace and harmony. Joint and combined celebration of the Day by various indigenous faith groups of the State, together, reinforces the spirit of unity in diversity. I am confident that this occasion will be an inspiration to all of us to work with enhanced zeal for all round development of our State Arunachal Pradesh, he said.

On this occasion, I join my Indigenous Faith people and offer prayers to the Almighty for His choicest blessings on each one of us, the Governor said in his message.
