Governor extends Si Donyi greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended his heartiest festival greetings to the people of the State in general and to Tagin brethren in particular, on the auspicious occasion of Si Donyi, the most important festival of the Tagin Tribe. He expressed his hope that the festival, in the New Year 2022, will usher- in amity and empathy amongst the people.

In his message, the Governor said that Si Donyi showcases the rich cultural heritage of Tagin fold and plays a significant role in defining the true customs, traditions, and culture of their lineage. Tagin community's faith is rooted deep and strong in their indigenous worship and their festivals. Si-Donyi Festival is an expression of approbation and esteem of the present generation towards the wisdom of their forebears, he said.

On this joyous occasion, I offer my prayers to Almighty Si Donyi to invoke their blessings for promoting communal harmony, a good harvest and good health for all of us, the Governor said in his message.
