Governor expresses happiness as all Arunachali students come out of Ukraine

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has expressed his happiness that all Arunachali students have come out of the war ravaged Ukraine. He also prayed for safe return of all the Indian students from the country.

The Governor, who has been closely monitoring the evacuation, thanked the Central Government and officials of the various embassies and ministries for the safe return of the Arunachali students, who have reached India. He also commended the parents and relatives of the students for the optimism and trust on the Government.

One more Arunachali student has to return back home. He is now safely out of the Ukraine warzone. He is presently now in Budapest, Hungary.
