Governor extends greetings to the people on the Ambedkar Jayanti

Governor appeals to the people to uphold the values and spirit of the Indian Constitution

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended his warm greetings to the people of the State on the birth anniversary of Bharat Ratna Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar. He expressed his hope that the occasion will instil renewed enthusiasm in building an equitable society.

In his message, the Governor said that Dr. Ambedkar, popularly known as Babasaheb, was an eminent jurist, economist, politician and social reformer, who headed the most important 'Drafting Committee' in the Constituent Assembly and was also the First Minister for Law and Justice of India. With great determination, Dr. Ambedkar worked for the upliftment and rights of the marginalised classes and eradication of social evils, he said.

On his birth anniversary, I appeal to all my fellow Arunachalis to uphold the values and spirit of the Indian Constitution for development, progress and prosperity of all sections of the society, State and Nation, the Governor said in his message.

PRO to Governor
