Governor conveys Bohag Bihu Festival greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings to all Arunachalis on the festive occasion of Bohag Bihu. He also extended his best wishes to the people of Assam, who celebrate the festival with great fervour.

In his message, the Governor said that Bohag Bihu, also known as Rongali Bihu ushers in the period of enjoyment and marks the arrival of spring, the agricultural season. People welcome the spring season and pray for a bountiful and rich harvest. This Bihu inspires unbounded joy and enthusiasm expressed through dances, songs, and other festivities. Bohag Bihu ushers in happy sowing carnival and sets in merriment amongst the people which culminates with prayers to God for good crop. I am sanguine that the sanctity of Bohag Bihu will positively bring tranquility, amity and harmony in the society, he said.

May this Bohag Bihu herald peace and prosperity in the whole of our State and cement a new era of harmonious relations and amicable coexistence amongst our people, the Governor said in his message.
