Governor condoles the demise of former Chief Secretary

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has condoled the sad demise of former Chief Secretary of the State, Shri Takap Ringu. He said that Late Ringu was one of the first generation administrative officers from the State and in his departure, the State has lost the man, who shaped the State through its nascent years.

The Governor said that Late Ringu was a distinguished bureaucrat and a respected person. He made valuable contributions towards the development of Arunachal Pradesh as also to the Galo Community in true tradition of the 'pay back' to his fold. In his passing away our State has lost a great son of the soil, he said.

On behalf of the people of Arunachal Pradesh and on my own behalf, I convey heartfelt condolences on the demise of Shri Takap Ringu and pray to the Almighty Donyi Polo to give fortitude to you and your family members to bear the irreparable loss and eternal peace to the departed soul, the Governor said in his condolence letter to Smt Kenyir Ringu, wife of Late Takap Ringu.

PRO to Governor
