First Lady of the State visit Donyi Polo Mission School

The First Lady of the State Smt Neelam Misra visited Donyi Polo Mission School at Chimpu for hearing and visually impaired Chimpu, on 12th July 2022. She interacted with the teachers and students on the occasion.

The First Lady of the State advised the students to work hard and imbibe progressive will and resolve. She said that differently abled students with self-determination do very well in life and lead happy independent lives.

The First Lady of the State said that people with disabilities have certain special abilities in different fields. They should develop immunity from the complex, which will help them immensely, she said.

The First Lady of the State praised the school authority of Donyi Polo Mission School for Hearing and Visually Impaired, Chimpu for introducing loom weaving amongst the curriculum activities. She said that loom weaving will definitely help the students with disabilities in standing on their own feet.

Earlier, the First Lady of the State visited the State Emporium of the Department of Textiles and Handicrafts and toured various sections of the State Government outlet which are dealing with a large number of indigenous handlooms and handicrafts products. She commended the quality of products displayed in the emporium and suggested for more outlets in other parts of the country. The department of Textiles and Handicrafts has set up a live demonstration, a brainchild of the First Lady of the State, for loom weaving in the emporium.
