Governor condoles the demise of Prof. Tamo Mibang, former VC, RGU

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) condoled the sudden demise of Prof. Tamo Mibang, former Vice-Chancellor of Rajiv Gandhi University. He said that in his passing away, the State has lost a brilliant educationist and academician, who made a lasting contribution to higher education in Arunachal Pradesh.

The Governor said that Prof. Mibang's path-breaking academic career and achievements in the field of academia and academic administration is unparalleled and he will be always remembered for being the first Arunachalee to become vice-chancellor of a central university.

Joining the people of Arunachal Pradesh in the hour of grief, the Governor offered prayers to the Almighty Donyi Polo to give fortitude to the members of the bereaved family to bear the irreparable loss and eternal peace for the departed soul.
