GOC 56 Infantry Division calls on the Governor

Major General Rajiv Ghai, SM, the General Officer Commanding (GOC), 56 Infantry Division, Likabali called on the Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 26th August 2022. It was a courtesy call.

The Governor commended the officers and troops of 56 Infantry Division for their professional resoluteness, operational competence and élan, which they have displayed during their deployment in the dense rugged jungle terrain and high altitude area on the Line of Actual Control (LAC) in Arunachal Pradesh. He also appreciated the troops for maintaining good relations with the District Administration and creating an excellent Civil-Army bonhomie in their area of deployment.

The Governor suggested to the GOC and officers of his Headquarters to motivate the youths of Arunachal Pradesh to join the Indian Armed Forces and also brief the intended candidates about Agnipath Scheme. He also emphasised on pre-recruitment training for the Arunachali youths.

PRO to Governor
