Governor extends Ke-Meh-Ha greetings

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has extended his heartiest greetings to the people of the State in general and my Idu Mishmi brethren in particular on the auspicious occasion of Ke-Meh-Ha. He expressed his hope that the festivity of Ke-Meh-Ha will usher in prosperity and happiness in the society.

In his message, the Governor said that since time immemorial, agriculture has been the main occupation of the people of Arunachal Pradesh, which resultantly in linking all the festivals to agricultural activities and the people have been celebrating these festivals in that manner. He said that the celebrations and rituals have become a vehicle for preservation and promotion of the traditions and cultural heritage.

Let us promote our rich history and customs and also be proud of our ethos, he said while urging the younger generation to take active part in the community celebrations which link all to their roots.

On this festive day, I join my Idu Mishmi brethren in their prayer to Apeh Milih of Apesha, the Goddess of crops and Manu, the spirit of field and granary to invoke their blessings for each one of us, the Governor said in his message.
