Governor condoles the demise of former minister Karma Wangchu

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) has condoled the demise of former minister Shri Karma Wangchu. The Governor said that in the demise of Shri Wangchu, the State has lost a patriot, veteran political leader and a great philanthropist.

Conveying shock and grief on the demise of the former member of State Legislative Assembly, the Governor said that Late Wangchu made immense contribution towards socio-economic development of the people and State in various capacities, during his long and distinguished political career. He was eminent social activist, who worked tirelessly towards preservation and promotion of the rich cultural heritage of the State and diligently served the people at the grassroots level. Late Wangchu was a public figure of distinction. He was farsighted and one of the trailblazers of democratic values in Arunachal Pradesh, the Governor said.

Extending his heartfelt condolence to the members of the bereaved family and admirers of Late Wangchu, the Governor offered prayers for fortitude for them to bear the irreparable loss and also for eternal peace of the departed soul.

PRO to Governor
