The Governor, while reviewing the Arunachal Pradesh Public Service Commission issue with the Chief Minister, reiterated that the Public Service Commission is a vital institution and it must be the endeavour of the State Government to instil the sense of transparency and fair-play amongst the aspiring youth for the State Civil, Police and other Services competitive examinations. He said that putting the affairs of the Public Service Commission is critically important, immediate and essential. Its rules and procedures for conducting examinations must be impeccable with no scope for errors and need no litigations, he said.
