Governor conveys Children's Day greetings

Let us give our best today for our children's tomorrow: Governor

Children's Day, ipso facts, is a special reminder for every parent / guardian as also the society to give all facilities to the children to enable them to progress with knowledge, dignity, confidence and compassion: Governor

The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B. D. Mishra (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings to the children and the people of the State on the occasion of Children's Day, which commemorates the birth anniversary of the first Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru.

In his message to the people on the occasion, the Governor said that children, on account of their tenderness, fragility and innocence, exclusively depend on their parents / guardians and the society at large for their growth, life sustenance and physical well being. Every adult in the nation, thus, owes it to her or his child or ward to afford her or him the best facilities to grow up in a healthy and happy atmosphere. Good upbringing of our children, nurtures a better future for all. We must, therefore, provide our children with the best opportunities to harness their potential and imbibe good values, so that they become ideal citizens of our State. Children's Day, ipso facts, is a special reminder for every parent / guardian as also the society to give all facilities to the children to enable them to progress with knowledge, dignity, confidence and compassion, he said.

On this special occasion, I call upon every parent / guardian to take a pledge to build a harmonious society which is empathetic to the healthy up-bringing of our children, the Governor said in his message, while appealing to them to give their best today for their children's tomorrow.
