The Governor of Arunachal Pradesh Brig. (Dr.) B.D. Mishra (Retd.) participated in the Constitution Day celebration at Raj Bhavan, Itanagar on 26th November 2022. The Governor led the en-masse reading of the Preamble of The Constitution of India on the occasion.

The Governor recalled the evolution of the Constitution from the food gathering and hunting society to organized society. He said that the constitution evolved with the needs of the time.

The Governor, while highlighting different forms of governance said that democracy is the best form of governance and it can only be run by constitution. He said that we are living in a civilized world and it is necessary that we all comply with our Constitution.

The Governor, while thanking the Union Government, led by Shri Narendra Modi ji for taking initiative in celebration the Constitution Day, expressed his hope that the occasion, which commemorates the day The Constitution of India was enacted, adopted and given to the people of India in 1949, further strengthens our resolve to preserve, protect and defend our Constitution.

The Governor said that if we want our State and our Nation to develop and progress, we have to realize the importance of our duties. He emphasized that today's need of the hour is to promote fraternity as well as the fundamental duties.

The Governor stressed that Article 51 A Fundamental Duties of PART IV-A must become an important part of our responsible behaviour. He appealed to the people of Arunachal Pradesh to live up to their Fundamental Duties as enshrined in The Constitution of India.

Principal, Jarbom Gamlin Government Law College, Jote, Dr. Jijo George delivered the Talk on the Preamble of The Constitution of India on the occasion

Government officials and students from different colleges including NCC Cadet from Dera Natung Government College, Itanagar, NSS volunteers from Don Bosco College, Jullang and law students from Jarbom Gamlin Government Law College, Jote participated in the programme.
